

MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARD

Georgia Fojitasek of Allegiance Health, Jackson was awarded the 2015 Meritorious Service Award. This award is MHA's highest achievement award and recognizes Georgia for her direction in influencing health care across the state. She led her hospital team in transporting Allegiance into a nationally recognized regional health system, bringing services such as open-heart surgery and radiation oncology services to Jackson, launching a graduate medical education program and establishing the Health Improvement Organization.
